

The New FLOW 93.5 Press Release

THE NEW FLOW 93.5'S DJs WIN BIG AT THE 2009 STYLUS DJ AWARDS!

TORONTO (June 2, 2009) - The New FLOW 93.5 DJs won a total of four awards as part of this year's 2009 Stylus DJ Awards. FLOW's own, DJ P-Plus, of the Midday Mix and Real Frequency Show, picked up the award for Radio Mixshow DJ of the Year. Spex, host of the Riddim Track, won Reggae DJ of the Year, and Jester grabbed two awards, including Soca DJ of the Year.

"I would like to congratulate all the FLOW DJs who won and who were nominated for the Stylus Awards," says Wayne Williams, The New FLOW 93.5's Program Director. "I am extremely proud that we are the home of the most talented DJs in the country!"

DJ P-Plus can be heard on the New FLOW 93.5 weekdays on the Midday Mix, noon - 1pm, and Monday nights on the Real Frequency Show, 11pm - 1am. Reggae DJ of the year, Spex, can be heard on the New FLOW 93.5 each Sunday from 9pm - midnight on the Riddim Track show.

The 2009 Stylus DJ Awards were held last night, June 1, 2009, at the Queen Elizabeth Theatre. Over 1000 guests gathered to celebrate and honour the achievements of DJs and artists throughout the country.